WHERE THE RIVERS MEET

TRES RIOS NATURE FESTIVAL

Discover the Tres Rios Nature Festival

Known as the Tres Rios, this confluence of the Gila, Salt and Agua Fria rivers is home to many unique plants, animals, birds and ecological wonders. It also provides for a variety of recreational opportunities. If you are looking for an event to appeal to every member of your family, look no further than the Tres Rios Nature Festival.

For over 2 decades, nature lovers have celebrated the rivers at this weekend-long spring event. Festival attendees come to see wildlife up close, go hiking, fishing, canoeing, participate in archery, watch birds and to learn about the unique ecology in this urban riparian oasis.

In partnership with Avondale Parks & Recreation, Sonoran Audubon, Arizona Game and Fish, AZ Herpetological Society, AZ SciTech Festivals, to name a few.

Admission is always free. The event takes place at the Base and Meridian Wildlife Area, located adjacent to Phoenix Raceway in Avondale. Five miles south of I-10 on Avondale Blvd (7602 Jimmie Johnson Dr., Avondale, AZ 85323).

Avondale – An urban Birding Hotspot

Arizona offers some of the best bird watching in America, and you don't even have to travel to the furthest outskirts of the state to find great places to view exotic birds. Avondale is home to the Base and Meridian area, an Important Birding Area (IBA), as designated by the National Audubon Society. This area is considered a conservation hub by wildlife experts, as the area has rich plant growth due to a perennial supply of nutrient-laden waters, which in turn attracts migrating species of birds – and flocks of bird watchers alike.

The Gila River has a perennial flow that comes from treated effluent from the City of Phoenix & other communities (including Avondale); excess agricultural water, and natural groundwater. This river creates significant riparian areas which include not only the Base & Meridian, but also the more desolate Arlington, Powers Butte, and Robbins Butte Arizona Game and Fish Wildlife areas managed for birds and wildlife by the Arizona Game and Fish Department. The fish community here is considered to be one of the most abundant in Arizona & consequently, fish-eating birds are found here in high numbers.

Breeding: Yuma Ridgeway's Rails, White-tailed Kite, Lesser Nighthawk, Anna's Hummingbird, Summer Tanager, Yellow-breasted Chat, Yellow Warbler, Lucy's Warbler.

Migration: Swainson's Hawk, Ferruginous Hawk, Olive-sided Flycatcher, Western Wood-Pewee, Willow Flycatcher, Cassin's Vireo, Wilson's Warbler.

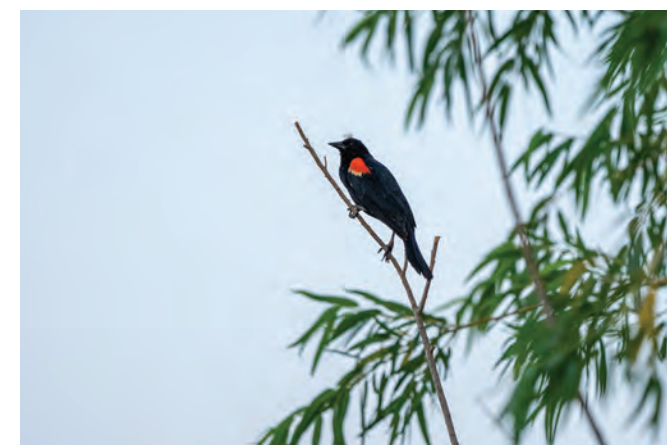

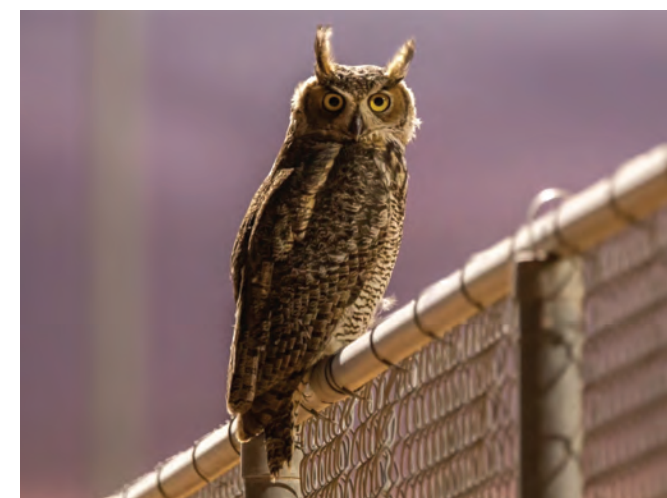

Winter: Northern Harrier, Prairie Falcon, Peregrine Falcon Osprey, Black-crowned Night Heron, Gadwall, Cinnamon Teal, Blue-winged Teal, Northern Shoveler, Sora, Long-billed Curlew, Greater Yellowlegs, Costa's Hummingbird, Belted Kingfisher, Red-naped Sapsucker, Marsh Wren, Ruby-crowned Kinglet and Yellow-rumped Warbler.

eBird

Citizen scientists & hobby birders can help keep count of specific species that visit our riparian oasis, by reporting them, through means like the eBird App (free). Bird sightings contribute to conservation decisions and help inform bird research worldwide.

eBird focus species: Yuma Ridgeway's Rail, Neotropic Cormorant, Long-billed Curlew, Abert's Towhee, Lucy's Warbler, and Costa's Hummingbird.

EXPERIENCE PHOENIX RACEWAY

Feel the Beat!

Relentless Beats finds a home at Phoenix Raceway

Electric Dance Music (EDM) is the latest craze in the festival music scene & Avondale, AZ plays host to some of the biggest crowd-gathering EDM experiences. Relentless Beats, a pioneer in the Arizona Electric Dance Music scene and known for its outrageous dance festivals, has brought this experience to Phoenix Raceway in Avondale.

The EDM-loving crowd -- mostly in their late teens and 20s -- looking to let loose, flock to the open space of the track to dance to the non-stop pounding beats dropped from the DJ.

The experience is intense. The theatrics are always a dizzying spectacle of colorful laser lights, smoke, confetti blasts, LED displays, and sometimes, even fire!

Festival-goers will come clad in furry SpiritHoods, neon-colored outfits, leotards, and eclectic costumes, while many bring flags and totems with pop culture references and messages.

Relentless Beats has brought out some of the biggest names in the DJ world. The festivals are where you'll also find up-and-coming acts and underground artists.

Multiple festivals are scheduled for 2022/2023

Phoenix Raceway

Where Champions Win – AND MORE!

NASCAR Racing

Home to two NASCAR races a year, including the NASCAR Championship Weekend, Phoenix Raceway offers some of the most incredible fan opportunities and a number of uniquely Avondale raceway experiences.

Drive a Race car

Rev your engines & drive a real race car on the track with the NASCAR Racing Driving Experience or Rusty Wallace Racing Experience. Following a driver's meeting with the Crew Chief, you'll drive a NASCAR race car for timed racing sessions. There's no lead car to follow, and no instructor rides with you. Instead, get one-on-one instruction from a spotter over the in-car radio, who will coach you as you increase lap speed. These fast-paced experiences are offered throughout the year.

Segway Tours

Phoenix Raceway is home to Segway Tours (scooter & golf cart are an option, too) offered by iLean Ride Co., and you can experience an exciting lap around the 1- mile oval. In addition to the lap along the track's apron and its infamous dogleg, the two-hour tour will take guests throughout the facility, highlighting unique areas at Phoenix Raceway. This experience is offered year-round.

Event Rentals

Don't be surprised if you hear wedding bells at the race track. The Barn is Arizona's newest and most unique of spots for bridal parties to tie the knot. In addition to weddings, it's the place for proms, bar and bat mitzvahs, quinceañeras, and upscale corporate events. The bonus is that you can reserve the pace car or take your wedding photos at Victory Lane!

Glamping

Don't have an RV, but still want to be close to everything on race weekends, day and night? Consider the glamping experience! A safari tent awaits you in the desert. This race track camping experience offers the amenities of a hotel (bedding and linens provided) without the hassle or hard work of having to pitch a tent yourself! Spots are limited at each race, so book your tent early.
